

< Back

Philip DeMilta

Projects Director

Philip is a well-seasoned and unique young business entrepreneur with a mature outlook and understanding of the business flow. Born in Dubai and a world traveler, his infectious personality endears him to his business relations and friends.

Philip has a quick and intelligent mind with an honesty and work ethic that we are very proud of. He manages new client relations and critical communications when required and we count on him more and more as our business grows.